QUEBEC CITY WINTER CARNIVAL

Friday, February 2 – Sunday, February 4, 2018

Day 1: February 2

Quebec City's Winter Carnival sprinkles fun all over town and Bonhomme invites you to his celebrations! Quebec City is among North America's most unique and appealing destinations. Experience its four centuries of French heritage, irresistible "walled city" charm, as well as its scenic and historic core with plenty of variety to see and do. Admire the impressive snow and ice sculptures adorning the city, visit the Ice palace and much, much more! Upon arrival, check into the Palace Royal hotel, located just outside the St. John Gate and a true gem in the heart of downtown Quebec. (D)

Day 2: February 3

Today you will enjoy a 2 ½ hour Quebec City Winter Tour. Your tour will include the Plains of Abraham, Cape Diamond, The Joan of Arc Garden, Grande-Allée, Parliament, Place d'Armes, Old Québec, Château Frontenac and especially Place Royale – the oldest most beautiful park of the city! Make sure you're warmly dressed, because you will take a walk through the narrow roads of Place Royal. You will have time at your leisure before enjoying a guided visit at Ice Hotel, the first and only true ice hotel in North America! This evening you will enjoy the Lower Town Carnival Parade. The parade will open your eyes to a world of fantasy and imagination. (B, D)

Day 3: February 4

Quebec City is one of the most beautiful cities in Canada and this morning you'll have time to explore the lovely streets, squares, boutiques and bistros on your own. Strolling along the winding streets, you'll feel as if you've gone back in time as you pass by homes built over 300 years ago. This morning you will have an opportunity to experience anything you may have missed at the carnival or in Old Québec before leaving to return home. (B)

MARCH BREAK FAMILY GETAWAY

Tuesday, March 13 - Wednesday, March 14, 2018

Day 1: March 13

Looking for something to do with the kids this March Break? Visit the newly renovated Museum of Science and Technology. The museum will continue to promote and celebrate Canada's long history of scientific and technological achievements, and inspire future innovation. The fun doesn't stop here! Continue to Cosmic Adventures, the ideal location for endless play. It features a multi-level soft structure with over 20,000 square feet of ball pits, slides, tunnels, mazes, obstacle courses and more. With plenty of padding to absorb all their energy and two designated areas for toddlers, this environment is ideal for active kids of any age! Check into the Hilton Lac Leamy where you will overnight this evening. The hotel features indoor and outdoor heated pools, five tempting restaurants and sits on the shores of Leamy Lake. The outdoor pool is open year-round and can be accessed by exiting to the outdoors by a door, or walk a few steps to a narrow channel and swim out instead (it's much more fun this way). For the adults wishing to try your luck at the casino or get pampered at the spa, babysitting services are available (additional fees apply).

Day 2: March 14

Today will be another fun-filled day. Explore one of the most extraordinary collections of art from across Canada and around the world at the National Gallery of Canada. Continue to the Rideau Centre where you can browse Ottawa's leading shopping destination and home to the biggest names in fashion, beauty, dining, electronics and more. With the Rideau Centre located in the heart of downtown, you may also wish to explore the Byward Market as an alternative. Next is The Canadian Museum of History. In addition to its ongoing exhibitions, each year the Museum presents many outstanding exhibitions focusing on Canadian and world history and civilizations. These exhibitions include those developed by the Museum as well as many produced by other Canadian or international institutions. (B)

OHIO AMISH COUNTRY

Monday, April 23 – Friday, April 27, 2018

Day 1: April 23

Get away from the hustle and bustle and enjoy the rolling hills and well cared for farmsteads. Visit Ohio Amish Country, home to the largest Amish settlement in the world! One of the best ways to appreciate your time spent in the area is by learning more about the Amish way of life. Enjoy good old-fashioned Amish meals, visit a local theatre, visit an Amish home, view items being handmade, browse the local shops and take in some local sightseeing and attractions.

Day 2: April 24

This morning a local guide will meet you for a full day of touring. Visit an Amish home and enjoy a delicious full breakfast. Continue to Coblenz Leather featuring a nice selection of handmade leather goods for men, women, and your home. Next you will visit the David Warther Museum. Here the carver himself will take you on a guided tour. Drive through Sugarcreek, part of Ohio's Amish Country but also known as the "Little Switzerland of Ohio." (B, L, D)

Day 3: April 25

Depart the hotel this morning with a local guide and head to Hershberger Baskets. Here you will meet Mattie Hershberger the head of an Amish Family and owner. Watch her make her beautiful hand-woven baskets. Next is P. Graham Dunn, a one-of-a-kind shopping experience offering a wide selection of high quality wood décor and gifts. Proceed to Lehman's Hardware for shopping and lunch on your own in their Café. Shop and reminisce your way through thousands of products, while browsing Jay Lehman's antique collection located throughout the store. Stop at Ashery's Bulk Food Store. This is the "grandma" of bulk food stores! Products include – deli meats, cheeses, pastas, candy, baked goods, a variety of dip, snack, cookie and soup mixes, a complete line of baking needs, spices, dried fruits, nuts, jams, peanut butter ground fresh daily and much more. Enjoy an Amish Wedding Feast at Katie Shrock Amish home. Experience an Amish Wedding Feast where the room will be set just like a wedding has just taken place. You may be selected from our group to sit at the main table. One couple will be the bride and groom, the other two couples will be the witness couples. (B, D)

Day 4: April 26

A local guide will meet the group again this morning for another day of sightseeing and experience the Amish heritage and traditions first hand. Today you will visit the Amish & Mennonite Heritage Center. See Behalt, illustrates the heritage of the Amish and Mennonite people from their Anabaptist beginnings in Zurich, Switzerland in 1525 to the present day. Behalt, meaning "to keep" or "to remember" is a 10 ft tall x 265 ft long cyclorama, or mural-in-the-round. Stop at the Holmes County Flea Market for some shopping. Continue to the Walnut Creek Cheese Store. Comedy entertainment will be included this evening at a local family theater. (B, L, D)

Day 5: April 27

This morning you will check out of the hotel before making a quick visit to Hershberger Bakery. Sample the best baked goods at an Amish bakery featuring their famous fry pies, stuffed cookies, cream sticks, breads, and more! Following the bakery visit you will depart for home with a much better understanding of a simpler life! Take home some homemade treats! Return home will be early evening. (B)

PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY WINE COUNTRY

Thursday, June 14 – Friday, June 15, 2018

Day 1: June 14

Prince Edward County is home to over forty wineries that use the rich terroir to produce scores of award-winning wines. Get away from the daily grind; explore, taste, reconnect and unwind. Today you will visit the County Cider Company, The Black River Cheese Company and more! Visit Waupoos Estate Winery, located on the shores of Lake Ontario and the first winery to open its doors in Prince Edward County. Accommodations this evening will be at the Picton Harbour Inn. This hotel is conveniently located in the heart of Ontario's newest wine and culinary destination. It is close to golf, shopping, fishing, kayaking, a craft brewery, cider maker, cheese factory, many studios, galleries, and more! (D)

Day 2: June 15

Check out of the hotel this morning for your travel to Bloomfield, a key destination on Prince Edward County's Taste and Arts Trails. Bloomfield is where friends gather for fine dining, cozy pubs, cafes, tearooms, wineries, handcrafted ice cream, fresh pastries, homemade bakery goodies, home décor and gift shops. It is a shopper's delight, a vibrant arts community, a flourishing farm community and an historic settlement. Quaker and Loyalist roots, graceful homes, well-tended gardens, and businesses housed in historic buildings all reflecting a pride of place dating back to the Barley Days of the 19th Century. Enjoy a guided tour and tasting at Huff Estates Winery. View the production facility where the story behind Huff Estates will be explained and you will be taken through the processing life from a bunch of grapes though to a bottle of wine. Next is Karlo Estates, one of the best little tasting experiences in the County. Begin your journey home making a brief stop at a Taste of Country in Belleville. (B, L)

NORTH CONWAY ~ YOUR WAY

Tuesday, June 26 – Friday, June 29, 2018

Day 1: June 26

North Conway is situated in the heart if Mt. Washington Valley in the beautiful White Mountains of New Hampshire. It is a shoppers' dream come true and a nature lover's paradise with the most dramatic natural scenery in the East. If that doesn't interest you, bring the family and spend the day at Kahuna Laguna Water Park or Banana Village Mini Golf (additional fees apply). Accommodations for the next three nights will be at the Hampton Inn & Suites in picturesque North Conway, New Hampshire. This hotel also provides you with complimentary access to the hotels pool and attached indoor waterpark.

Day 2-3: June 27 – June 28

These two days will be free to enjoy as you wish. You may choose to shop at the local outlets, boutiques and gift shops near the hotel. Find hundreds of discounted outlet stores, fine art galleries, and factory outlets to shop in the North Conway area for name-brand clothing, artwork, outdoor, locally made products, crafts, and gourmet gadgetry. New Hampshire is a popular outlet shopping destination because there is no state sales tax on purchases! You may also wish to take in the beautiful New England scenery or visit some of the local attractions. The nostalgic Conway Scenic Railroad is also an opportunity for those not wanting to shop. With a variation of routes and durations, the Conway Scenic Railway will provide you with an unforgettable experience of rail travel through the Mt. Washington Valley countryside or the legendary Crawford Notch excursion. For those who a little more adventurous pack your swimwear and spend a day at Kahuna Laguna Water Park, northern New England's 40,000 square foot water park family fun! (B x 2)

Day 4: June 29

After an unforgettable 4-day getaway to New England's very own North Conway, you must depart to begin your journey home. If time permits, there will be a brief shopping stop on the way home for a little more shopping. (B)

THE BEAUTY OF NOVA SCOTIA

Saturday, August 18 – Sunday, August 26, 2018

Day 1: August 18

This Nova Scotia tour will have you breathing Atlantic Canada's very own fresh salt air, viewing unspoiled scenery, learning the rich history and experiencing the warm hospitality. Accommodations this evening will be in Edmundston, New Brunswick. (D)

Day 2: August 19

Check out of the hotel this morning to continue to Wolfville, Nova Scotia where you will be accommodated at the Old Orchard Inn and Spa. Enjoy the panoramic views from this conveniently located hotel in the scenic Annapolis Valley. The evening will be free to enjoy as you wish. (B, D)

Day 3: August 20

This morning you will start your day with a visit to the Grand Pré UNESCO Heritage Site. The site commemorates the Grand Pré area as a centre of Acadian settlement from 1682 to 1755 and the deportation of the Acadians, which began in 1755 and continued until 1762. Continue to Digby where you will see the Point Prim Lighthouse. Enjoy spectacular views over the Bay of Fundy from the grounds. Drive past Trinity Anglican Church before making your way to Lunenburg. Trinity Anglican Church is located on a hillside on the corner of Mount and Queen Streets in Digby, overlooking the waterfront area of the town. This wooden Gothic Revival style church was built in 1878. Accommodations this evening will be at the Best Western Plus Bridgewater for your two nights stay. (B)

Day 4: August 21

Return to the scenic South Shore to the town of Lunenburg, once one of the top wooden ship building centres in North America. With an extraordinary number of buildings remaining from the 1760s, and the streets still following the original town plan, this led to the Old Town area being designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1995. Visit the Fisheries Museum of the Atlantic where the numerous displays will help you gain an understanding of Atlantic Canada's commercial fishing history. During your visit, talk with boat builders in the boat shop, tour the Grand Banks schooner Theresa E Conner, or see the world's largest collection of Bluenose artifacts. This afternoon you will enjoy a whale watching cruise. Pack the binoculars and camera and prepare for an unparalleled ocean adventure in hopes to see fin, pilot, minke and the favoured humpback whales. There are dolphins, ocean sun fish, giant blue fin tuna and leatherback turtles, puffins, razorbills, and more! Should the seas be too rough, Capt. Flower will conduct an informative tour of historic Lunenburg Harbour and the nearby Ovens Natural Park. The rugged coast is spectacular and the sea caves at the park are something to behold. (B)

Day 5: August 22

Travel the coast from Lunenburg to Mahone Bay and then onto Halifax. Enjoy beautiful scenery and the rugged coast. Visit Peggy's Cove, a beacon photographed like no other. Peggy's Cove is a vibrant fishing village. Built in 1915, Peggy's Point Lighthouse continues to keep watch over surging ocean waves and working lobster boats. Scramble over giant rocks worn smooth by the sea and share in the view. Accommodations this evening will be at the Delta Halifax. (B)

Day 6: August 23

Today you will enjoy a tour of this historic port city of Halifax. Hear stories of Halifax during the war years, including the Halifax Explosion and the city's role in the recovery operations after the Titanic disaster. The tour will include the waterfront, historic downtown, St. Paul's Church, the universities, shopping and residential areas. Make a photo stop up Citadel Hill and take a stroll through the Halifax Public Gardens, a fine example of Victorian landscaping. Enjoy lunch on your own in historic downtown Halifax before continuing to Baddeck, a bustling village that maintains its essence as a quaint community. Baddeck is situated in the heart of Cape Breton Island and considered to be at the beginning of the world-famous Cabot Trail. Accommodations tonight will be at Dundee Resort and Golf Club. (B, D)

Day 7: August 24

Enjoy a scenic drive along The Cabot Trail taking you around the greater part of Nova Scotia's Cape Breton Island, one of the most famous drives in Canada. Cape Breton Highlands National Park is one of Canada's most enchanting places, where the mountains meet the sea. Cape Breton Highlands National Park is a vast region that protects majestic hills, deeply-cut river glens and spectacular ocean scenery. Make your way to Truro where you will enjoy your final overnight in the province of Nova Scotia! Tonight, you will be accommodated at the Holiday Inn Truro. (B, D)

Day 8: August 25

Check out of the hotel this morning to begin making your way home. Accommodations this evening will be in Riviere-du-Loup, Quebec where you will overnight. (B, D)

THE SHORES OF CAPE COD

Monday, September 3 – Friday, September 7, 2018

Day 1: September 3

Travel today will take you to the sandy shores of Cape Cod. Extending some 70 miles into the sea, the Cape is home to both natural beauty and quaint colonial villages. You can walk pristine beaches, revel in the arts and culture, and reclaim childhood memories of seashells, sandcastles, and saltwater taffy. Accommodations for the next four nights will be at the Blue Rock Resort. This is a Cape Cod resort, tucked away in South Yarmouth, overlooking colourful gardens and the scenic greens of Blue Rock Golf Course. (D)

Day 2: September 4

A local guide will meet you at the hotel this morning for a full day of touring. You will travel historic Route 6A, the Old King's Highway, a scenic byway winding through centuries of Cape Cod history. It winds past hundreds of historic structures which characterize its early development. View the Eastham Windmill, a Cape Cod Lighthouse and stop at the Cape Cod National Seashore Center. Sand dunes and the ocean surround you as you approach "Land's End" – Provincetown. You are now at the extreme tip of Cape Cod. Formerly known as the "Province Lands", the pilgrims landed here first before they decided to settle across the Bay in Plymouth. Take some time to enjoy the wonderful variety of restaurants, shops, and galleries that make this artist/fishermen village so unique. Board an excursion vessel for an amazing experience of whale watching. You will travel into the natural habitat of a diverse marine environment including birds that migrate here from all over the Atlantic, and fish which use these shallow waters to feed. Try to spot Humpback, Minke, and Fin Whales going about their daily business. An onboard naturalist will introduce you to everything you see and will answer any of your questions about the whales, birds, fish and lighthouses. For those wanting to stay on land, you can enjoy a dune tour. Ride along the shoreline of the protected lands of the Cape Cod National Seashore. Your guide will point out the "dune shacks" where famous artists and writers became inspired to create their art. (B, D)

Day 3: September 5

Enjoy a full free day at your leisure. Lounge by the pool with a good book, play a round of golf on the resorts 18-hole award winning executive course, take a ferry to visit either Martha's Vineyard or Nantucket Island, Shop Main Street Hyannis and stroll along the harbor, visit the JFK Museum, or take a Hyannis Harbor Cruise. Fees apply to some of these activities however this is the perfect opportunity to explore Cape Cod as you wish! (B)

Day 4: September 6

Your local guide will meet you at the hotel and you will travel to America's Hometown-Plymouth. One of the country's first settlements, it is well known in the United States for its historical value. A picture stop will be made at the Forefather's Monument, the largest, solid granite monument in the United States. She stands facing the harbour, welcoming those who come by water. A picture stop will also be made at the Plymouth Rock, the traditional site of disembarkation of the Pilgrims in 1620. Board a Lobster Tales Cruise to learn about the many creatures that live in Plymouth Harbor. Experience a "hands on" approach to see how lobsters are harvested from their natural environment. Roll up your sleeves to help haul in lobster traps. You will have time at your leisure for shopping and lunch on your own on the harbour front. Back over the bridge you will travel through Sandwich, the oldest town on Cape Cod. You will view the Village Green, the Great Salt Marsh, a Cranberry Bog, and Cape Cod Bay. Sandwich became the site of one of America's largest glass factories, an industry that flourished during the 19th century. This quaint and quiet seaside community is the hometown of Thornton Burgess, naturalist and author of 170 children's books. Next, your guide will conduct a tour of Hyannis including the John F. Kennedy Memorial, the Korean War Memorial, Hyannisport and a view of the St. Francis Xavier Church, the summer parish of the Kennedy Family. Admission is included to the Whydah Pirate Museum. The Whydah was a fully rigged galley ship that was built by the British. During one of its voyages in 1717, it was captured by the famed pirate Samuel "Black Sam"

Bellamy. During an infamous storm off the coast of Cape Cod the Whydah sank, laying its treasures just 500 feet off the shore for over 250 years. Now you can touch and see the world's only authenticated pirate treasure. A lobster dinner is included this evening (alternate entrée available for those who wish). (B, D)

VIRGINIA BEACH ~ UNDER THE BOARDWALK

Monday, October 8 – Saturday, October 13, 2018

Day 1: October 8

As a lively year-round destination, Virginia Beach attracts travelers from near and far. Today, travel to Winchester, Virginia making regular rest and meal stops along the way. Check into a Hampton Inn or similar where you will overnight tonight.

Day 2: October 9

Continue to Virginia Beach and check in to your oceanfront hotel for a three-night stay. Tonight's event is an "Evening in Margaritaville," dedicated to the fictitious Island where everyone is young, where the sun and the music is hot and you wasted away a few idle days. These festivities will take place in a large ballroom with islands of table and chairs. Music is playing as you enter the room and dancing is underway. This is one of the best Jimmy Buffett Tribute bands in America. Wear your flip flops and bright coloured Aloha shirts! (B, D)

Day 3: October 10

Travel a short distance to downtown Norfolk and enjoy the Spirit of Norfolk Luncheon Cruise. Enjoy great views along the Elizabeth River Waterfront, including the location of the first battle between ironclad ships: The Monitor & Merrimac, plus the Norfolk Naval Base home port for the Atlantic Fleet and its 125 vessels including nuclear submarines and aircraft carriers. You will have time at your leisure for dinner on your own before seeing The Drifters! The men in this vocal group are members of The Rock n' Roll Hall of Fame, The Vocal Group Hall of Fame and The Songwriters Hall of Fame; they also have 13 Billboard Hot 100 Hits. Songs such as "Under the Boardwalk", "This Magic Moment", "Save the Last Dance for Me", "Stand by Me", and "Fools Fall in Love." This is a big musical concert on a full theatrical stage with Broadway quality sound and lights. (B, L)

Day 4: October 11

Deep in your own beach moment, there is a breeze across your face and sand between your toes. Whether you would like to sightsee, take in an attraction or shop, today will be free to enjoy Virginia Beach as you wish. Tonight's big event is a Beach Boys Boardwalk Bash. Once again, wear colourful clothes, flip flops, muumuus, floral shirts, sun glasses, beach hats, get in the mood! Enjoy a great tribute band playing the Best of the Beach Boys. Whether you dance or just watch, it's a night of great excitations. You'll be feeling those "Good, good, good vibrations" as you listen to such classics as "California Girls", "Surfer Girl", "Little Deuce Coupe", and "I Get Around". For many people this is a night of youthful memories of Beach Movies and Sock Hops. For others it's a chance to hear the musical harmonies of another generation. (B, D)

Day 5: October 12

After an experiencing the diversity of Virginia Beach, absorbing the richness of the natural surroundings and the vibrancy it offers, we must bid a farewell to begin our journey home. Travel to the Scranton, Pennsylvania area where you will overnight at a Hampton Inn or similar. (B, D)

Day 6: October 13

Check out of the hotel for your return travel home. Virginia Beach will leave you wanting to return! (B)

PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH COUNTRY ~ LANCASTER COUNTY

Tuesday, October 23 – Friday, October 26, 2018

Day 1: October 23

Visit Lancaster County and you'll bring home memories of the expected - farmlands, family-style feasts and the Amish. Step back in time to an era when life was simpler; to a place where the welcome is friendly and the hospitality is abundant. Upon arrival, you will check into the Comfort Inn Lancaster. This hotel is within walking distance to Rockvale Outlets' ninety factory direct stores and nine restaurants. The evening will be free to enjoy at your leisure.

Day 2: October 24

Enjoy a countryside tour today making your way around Lancaster County. Collect a multitude of memories as you visit Kreider Farm House, a pretzel factory, an Amish craft shop and more! Complete your day with reserved seats to the musical comedy "Sister Act". Sister Act tells the hilarious story of Deloris Van Cartier, a wannabe diva whose life takes a surprising turn when she witnesses a murder and the cops hide her in the last place anyone would think to look - a convent! Under the suspicious watch of Mother Superior, Deloris helps the secluded sisters find their voices as she unexpectedly rediscovers her own. A sparkling tribute to the universal power of friendship, Sister Act is reason to rejoice! (B, D)

Day 3: October 25

Among today's sites you will visit an Amish Farm and House before making your way to Longwood Gardens. Longwood Gardens consists of over 1,077 acres of gardens, woodlands, and meadows. Tonight, you will enjoy your reserved seats for "Jesus" at the Sight & Sound Theater. Experience the greatest rescue story of all time! Jesus is the action-packed musical stage adventure that takes you on a miraculous journey alongside the most famous person to every walk the earth, and the everyday people whose lives he changed forever. (B, D)
